OPERATIONAL REPORT

1. The attached reports, personnel history statements and photographs on below-cited Roumanian DPs were recently turned over to J1124 by S/A Robert GIBBLL of 139th SIG Det, Sub-Post "A", who stated that the persons concerned are currently SIG informants who have indicated a desire to work on positive intelligence matters pertaining to Roumania. S/A GIBBLL was advised that the matter would be forwarded to Staff for further consideration.

2. Ferdinand SCHNEIDER, born August 1924 in BUCHAREST, Roumanian, is presently working for SIG Det "A" as an informant on CI Roumanian matters, under the cover name of "E. H. H.". He had formerly worked for S/A GIBBLL and alleged to have made several trips into Hungary, Roumania and Yugoslavia. Attached hereto as Appendix "A" are signed personnel history statement as well as translation of same, photos of SCHNEIDER, as well as his signed offer to SIG with translation of same.

3. Michael H. H. H., born 1 June 1924 in BUCHAREST, Roumanian, has worked as a mechanic and janitor for numerous US Army units and American families since the fall of 1945. A check of the G-2 files reveals the following: He is possibly identical with Michael H. H. who is a former ethnic German pro-Communist. His life history as well as translation of same is attached herewith as Appendix "B".

4. John H. H. H., born 1 Jan 1931, living at Elizabeth, Mexico, formerly was a prisoner of war, was attached to interest SIG, through "E. H. H.", in a report from J1124, dated 5 May 1950, is currently a member of Army, working on conditions in Roumanian. According to J1124, H. H. H., who recently came to Elizabeth from Vienna has never been interviewed by a US intelligence agency. "E. H. H." report with translation is attached hereto as Appendix "C". A check of the G-2 files did not reveal any information on H. H. H.

5. "E. H. H." has also reported to SIG on one (one) Enter H. H. H. who is allegedly in contact with the French intelligence. H. H. H., in turn has a number of Roumanian contacts, some of whom are intelligence peddlers. "E. H. H." report is attached hereto as Appendix "D". A check of the G-2 files revealed numerous references to H. H. H., a well known, ID operative,

6. Another former TIB operative known under the cover name of ADAM, true name YASIAH TON, born 14 March 1914 in CHIVRELL, Mountain, has offered his services to the TIB in connection operation into Mountain. TON was interviewed by 35124. In the course of which other aliases used in the past by TON were made known as being "YASIAH" and "YEH". He had been a former associate of "H. L. GARDNER" in a Mountain TIB net, with whom he later split. Pursuant to instructions from 35122 who had been briefed on the above matter, TON was given a negative reply to his offer.

COPIES:

It is believed that the above-mentioned persons are part of a discontinued TIB operation and are now looking for new contacts and means of livelihood. It is recommended that TIB be queried as to the background and past activities of these persons. In the opinion of 35110, Ferdinand SCHLAFER appears to be of possible interest to this Field Unit.
